

What is My Memory Catcher™?

Your child and other children you know say and do the cutest things, don't they? When was the last time you wrote them down? Would you love to preserve and retell those precious stories for a lifetime?

We can help you!

My Memory Catcher™ captures children's adorable moments - the ones you don't want to forget yet can't find the time to write down yourself. Through heartwarming, one-on-one phone interviews with parents or loved ones, your personal Parent Historian™ will gather those spontaneous instants when your child said or did something sweet, insightful, or downright hysterical. We then create a written collection of your stories in a priceless keepsake you'll treasure forever.

With the help of your Parent Historian™, you'll see first-hand how your memories enhance your family's happiness - and who doesn't want more happiness? You'll be amazed at how much more fun and less stressful your home will be, and how many extra giggles your family will share, when you become even more in the habit of fully absorbing the marvel of your children. We'll save you time by writing the stories for you and you'll never worry about forgetting another precious memory.

Your own personal Parent Historian™ to create a written collection for you of your child's cutest moments - as seen through your eyes!

Capturing Happiness!™

How It Works

Capturing your memories is easy and fun!

- ★ Your designated Parent Historian™ will phone you once every two or three weeks at your pre-scheduled time to chat about your child's adorable stories. Interviews last 20 to 30 minutes for optimum storytelling and capturing. Get ready for lots of giggles and "oohs" and "aahs."
- ★ After your interview, your Parent Historian™ will write down your stories in glorious detail.
- ★ When you complete your package, you'll receive your written collection of stories in a distinctive, spiral-bound journal and have an opportunity to purchase personalized gift items.
- ★ Can't recall all your stories? We provide you with tools to help you easily remember the sweet moments between interviews.
- ★ You may designate a grandparent, caregiver, teacher or anyone else who spends quality time with your child to be the one interviewed by your Parent Historian™.

The Inspiration Behind My Memory Catcher™

My Memory Catcher™ owner, Keri Gee Semmelman, grew up in a storytelling family. Hearing her parents retell stories over the years about her and her loved ones brought so much laughter and happiness to their entire family. With this inspiration, coupled with her professional background in journalism and youth leadership, Keri Gee innovated the concept of Parent Historian™ — and became one herself — as a way to help create that same happiness for families everywhere.

Unique to My Memory Catcher, Parent Historians™ are specially trained to glean your special stories and to record them in writing with all the love and pride in which you tell them. All Parent Historians™ have extensive experience in journalism and/or working with children and families, making them the perfect partner for turning your memories into legacies.

Visit www.MyMemoryCatcher.net for more information on how we can help you capture your child's precious moments.
